Odell; Executive Com., W. H. Hayford, A. E. Partlow, Robert Warner; Collector, E. E. Holmes. The meeting was adjourned to Mar. 18th, at which time all members are requested to be present as there is to be important business transacted.

The Schubert Quartet gave their entertainment there March 3, and it was undoubtedly the star member of the course. As an impersonator of children, Miss Elvie Burnett is unsurpassed. Dr. Clark has sung here before and the people were only too glad to hear him again. The first tenor, Robert Martin, was a Vermont man, his home being in Franklin Co. He demonstrated the fact that to be a successful singer it was not necessary to be a foreigner.

CARD OF THANKS.—To the many friends and neighbors that so kindly gave us their sympathy and aid during the sickness, death and burial of our dear parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philo Davis, we extend our heartfelt thanks.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Davis.
